While traveling for old state in Nov, 1939, had a blind date with Jessie Standard in Empress. Left the next day, & over the next several months had several letters, calls, or any other contact. On April 7, 1940, he returned to Empress. They had a date the next night, & a few minutes after leaving the house he asked her to marry him - scared her to death. She said yes - scared HIM to death!
